THERE'S A NEW KID IN TOWN

New Student life at B.C.S. is not easy. Making new friends, adapting to a new school and even just being away from home can be hard. New Student Line and New Cadets, which we don't enjoy at first, after a while become a part of our daily schedule. New Cadet Camp was a success for all. We enjoyed the camp activities, which included an evening of campfire songs and a Tug-of-war which the girls won. To top it all off I can honestly say that we all enjoyed the fine cuisine. I'm sure that if you ask any New Student how it was at first, they will say "not easy". Ask them today and it's "NO PROBLEM".

Craig McCutcheon.

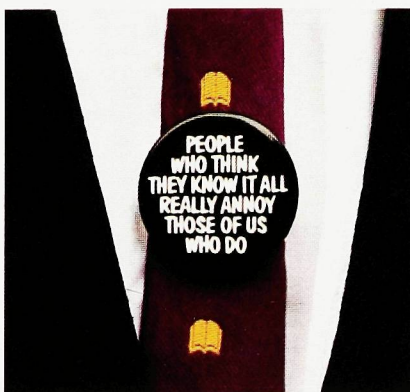

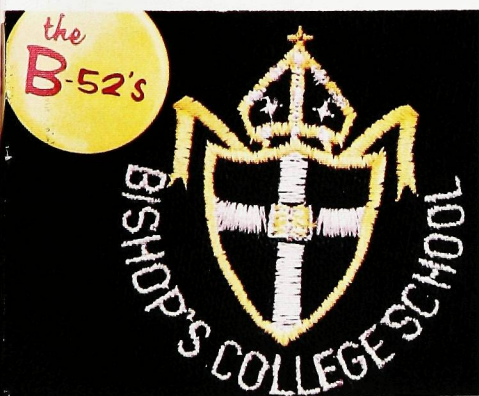

Bish obviously has a look all of its own, what with our tunics, ties, crests and kilts. Our own special style, though, comes from a lot more than that. You could start with the bizzare buttons that creep onto tunics and sweaters, or the "de rigueur" crease clothes of long johns with boxer shorts. (Be them labelled B.C.S. or no-name brand.) Then move through the year 'till you get to Spring, which invariably sends the guys running for their most obnoxious jackets and shorts. All together it comes together to make a "look" you'll be hard pressed to find anywhere else.

LA VIE EN ROSE

Quand je suis arrivée à B.C.S., j'ai trouvé l'adaptation à ce nouveau milieu difficile. Apprendre l'anglais n'est pas la seule difficulté, il faut apprendre à penser différemment et s'adapter à une nouvelle culture.

A B.C.S. c'est facile quand on met un peu de nous même et de bonne volonté, car les gens essaient de nous mettre à l'aise, les professeurs parlent tous un peu de français. Bien entendu ça prend un peu de temps à s'en rendre compte.

Je ne sais pas ce qui serait arriver dans une autre école. Ja sais cependant qu'à B.C.S. les gens acceptent bien les francophones et que d'ailleurs nous sommes pas mal nombreux.

Enfin je suis très contente d'être bilingue maintenant. Ça valait la peine de rester et de surmonter les difficultés que j'ai eu au début.

MONEY

B.C.S. Alumni Staff and members of the Seventh Form worked long and hard to make the first B.C.S. Gala Auction a success, and their perseverance paid off. The fantastic auctioneer, Tim Duggan, successfully emptied pocketbooks as the evening progressed. The great melange of donations - ranging from paintings to a live bull to a ton of manure - were all sold. The silent auction attracted much attention, as did the duck pond, which sold out quickly only to be emptied "accidentally" on the floor. Not to despair! The B.C.S. bearers of the grey and white striped aprons smiled cheerfully and tirelessly into the small hours. Four long hours resulted in over $100 000; quite an achievement! Thanks to all the generous supporters who made the evening the success it was.

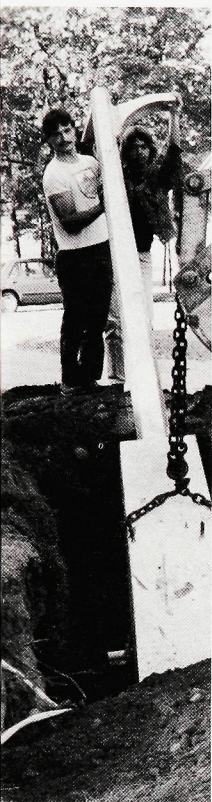

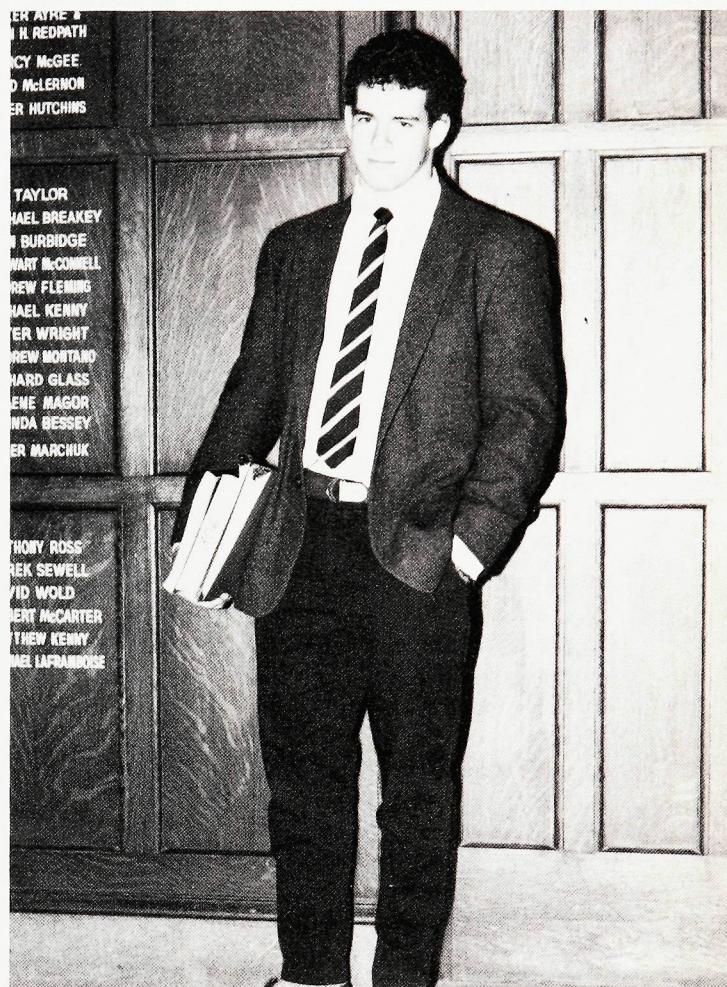

As any old student who came back this year can testify, changes have occurred throughout the entire school. Some are obvious (that distinctive white line flying down the cloisters!) and some give the appearance of having been part of the school for years (the prefects names in center hall). The prefects themselves relinquished their old room to Mrs. Peacock, the sixth and seventh form common room shrank, and the staff acquired new members, from Mr. Wardlaw who is teaching for the first time to Mr. Thomson who has taught all over Canada.

The rink has undergone extensive repairs which were both expensive and time consuming, and houses all over campus have had facelifts. Though the people and objects may have seemed strange at first, they have rapidly become part of B.C.S. or, to quote Alphonse Karr, "The more things change, the more they remain the same"!

CH-CH-CHANGES

WALK ON THE WILD SIDE

Saturday night! Checking out, six hours of freedom, dashing over the bridge to B.U. bus stop. Finally getting off in "downtown" Sherbrooke; Alexander Street, Wellington Street, maybe the Carrefour for a movie. After, maybe dropping by L'Imprevue (or wherever you like to go . . .) Whatever you do, it's with friends, a chance to relax and get away from the hectic pace of the school week. Finally, on the way back, stopping in at Jerry's or Colsy's for a quick snack, then, full and exhausted (almost) rushing back to make it before curfew.

THE LEADER OF THE PACK

The Yearbook Committee has suggested that, in keeping with this year's musical theme, my "hit" should be "Leader of the Pack." I find I am more in tune with the slogan on a T-shirt given me two years ago by an Old Boy, which slogan reads, "I Wish These Kids Would Wait For Me. I'm Meant to be Their Leader."! And this is certainly not a comme. I'm meant to be their leader??"

plaint. The School continues to go from strength to strength in every area - Academics, the Arts, Athletics, Community Service - and I could add to the list at length. The pace is demanding, exhausting and exhilarating. We do many things and do them well, and we should all be proud of being part of this very special community. Success is an integral part of all that we do here and so, while I would not dare to designate myself "Leader of the Pack," I do feel privileged to be a part of "The Pack" that is BCS 1985-86.

GIVE ME JUST A LITTLE MORE TIME

- Chairman of the Board

The Editor, in assigning "Give Me Just A Little More Time" has triggered some thoughts on the expansive qualities of time, and how each of us can creatively use it to great advantage. We must grasp with enthusiasm all the opportunities we are given to increase our knowledge and experience. Explore, question, invent and enjoy. Abusing intelligence with indifference is a waste of time.

"Abusing intelligence with indifference is a waste of time".

---

The historically proven strengths of B.C.S. are that its energetic community stimulates individuality and commitment. We all can go on developing these skills. Set our sights, and above all, be true to the values that we know have stood the test of time.

With best wishes to you all, I remain your
"Chairman Of The Board".

PURPLE

PEOPLE EATER

This year's Prefects were a tightly molded group. A group with the strength, flexibility, and tenacity to overcome the problems. Problems that every group of Prefects (past, and future) must face and overcome . . . Personally my VII form year has been very rewarding. To be offered the most distinguished position in the school, could only serve to cap-off the six years of commitment I placed in B.C.S.. Graduation draws nearer at a blinding pace, and many fond memories will be left behind. To the rest of the crew (Ray, Claire, Sarah, Kevin, Kate, and M.L.), the Prefects, thank-you for your support, and the sacrifice you made to make this year another successful one at Bishop's College School.

Yours Truly,
Andrew Hall

Soon after returning to School, coaches, students, managers and officials were busy preparing for the season ahead.

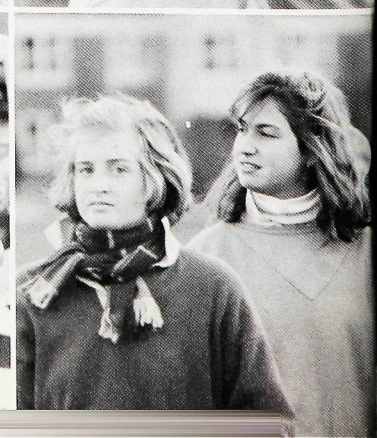

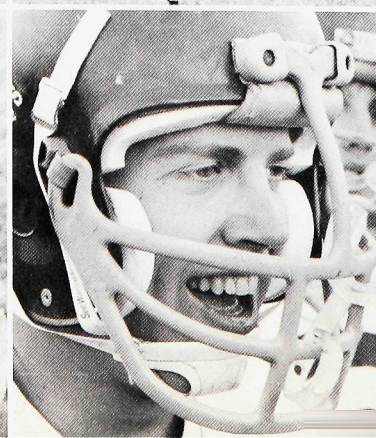

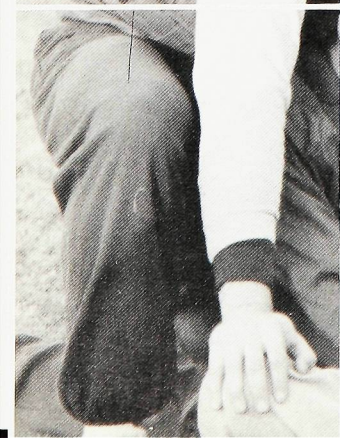

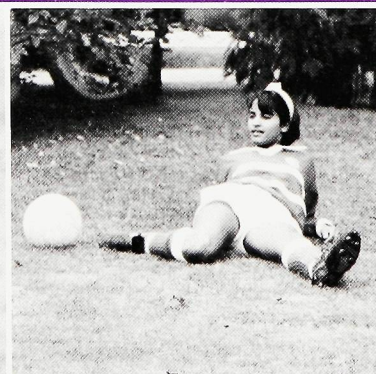

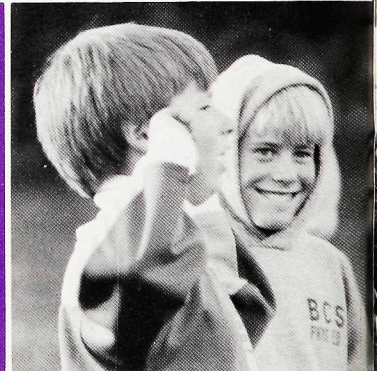

Pounds of excess weight were shed, numerous aches and pains were overcome, crutches, band aids and slings were discarded - we were ready.

It was soon evident that B.C.S. was the team to beat, an impressive list of individual and team trophies were accumulated as the season progressed.

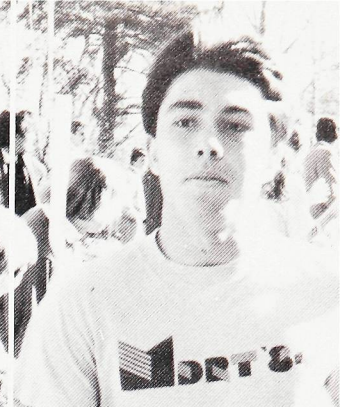

In total we played 119 games winning 64, tying 12, and losing 43.

Thanks to all students, coaches, managers, officials, and of course the infirmiry staff for a super combined effort.

BEHIND THE LINES

Senior Soccer

The first day of crease, I looked around and I thought "OH GOD"! But the team got into the groove and we started to PLAY, and have FUN doing it!!! with my constant screeching at the others on the field. "Not the person Nat; The ball!" "Sonia, don't kick the goalie in the head!" "Not there Caroline . . . THERE!!!" It was hard but we stuck to it and won in all the ways that counted.

Thanks to Mr. Peacock for yet another great year and to Mrs. Sakamoto for carrying her "REAL IDE" to all away games!!

Good luck next year, Luv, Carol.

SUICIDE IS PAINLESS

Senior Football

It was a sizzling hot September day and the boys took to the field. The Crew was assembled and a band was formed. Led by Nelson "the Spear" Morales, Bernie "the Bandit" Vesce, Elwood Blues Hall, and Jake Blues Eustace. Under the leadership of these infamous characters, the Band managed to tear up the turf. With Band members like Eric "the Bull" Becker, Andy "the Dog" MacLauglan, and Pat "the Pack" LeBlond, teams could not survive the punishment which these Men dealt upon them. The members of the Band would like to thank Mark "THE Bruize Brother" Gallagher (T.B.G.) and Albert the "Bruize Brother" MacDonald (B.M) for their support in giving us a memorable year of football.

Thanks,
The Band

Junior Football

Junior football was a learning experience for all of us. Kidding aside; we've had wins and losses (we're still trying to figure out which ones we won . . .)

The offence had a shaky start, but as the season progressed they learnt how to "EXECUTE THOSE PLAYS". A football team is not complete without a sturdy defence: which we took pride in. They gave 100% and sometimes more.

We would like to thank our coaches, Mr. Sherriffs and Mr. Marlin who made this season one we will never forget. (We hope!)

P.S. Honourable mention to Mr. Marlin's 101 year old grandmother.

The Captains???

BIG IN JAPAN Karate

No, we don't hop around like monkeys, or yell like Bruce Lee. It's plain, simple, ordinary karate. In fact, you know what we yell? Kiai! It means "have a nice day". We do this every time we punch. Believe it or not, everybody in the crease gets their kicks out of it. Oops, I seem to have disgraced. What I really meant to say is that we all enjoyed the crease. It was real great fun. Thank you Sensei. Ouss!

Gymnastics

Non-competitive gymnastics, revived after several years brought forth 14 female and 4 male participants. Throughout the crease the gymnasts performed on various pieces of equipment. Highlights of the season were Yvonne's handstands, Karen's music, Kate's week-end appearance, Keith's nose-dive, Eric's accident proneness, Kayla's hips, Gillian's "Darling", Lyne's off crease slips, Roy's headstands, Sonia's fashion, Jasmine's and Sue's round-offs, Mr. Sakamoto's travelling spin, Miss Harding's circuit and Sean's article.

Senior Boys Soccer

Once again Senior boys soccer had a strong team. This year's players are mostly Junior champions who have moved up. As with every new season, the team had a few problems positioning its new players. Luckily for us we have an expert organiser in that area, "THE MAJOR". He settled us down and we we're back to championship level. We hope to stay there for many seasons to come, as we have done in the past.

All our players are talented with different skills. It's this diversity of skills merged that makes us the BEST TEAM.

Till next season, OGIE OGIE OGIE

ONLY A GAME

Junior Boys Soccer

Perfect . . . as if. Quite the deep statement, but that's what the Junior Soccer team strived on. With a handful of Junior Soccer vets we started the crease unaware of what may arise. But as time went on we began to play as a team. Therefore the league title was in reach. As the season ended no-one shall forget Gavin's first goal or Oshita's first head.

Bantam Boys Soccer

For the first time the Bantam Team took the E.T.I.A.C. championship, undefeated in the League, though scored - on once. A 3-0 defeat to AGRHS in the play-off final was an upsetting shock. The crease was an unqualified success. The keen participants combined to produce a squad displaying determination and "true grit" throughout the season. Special thanks to Chris Hamelin for his commitment to leadership by example; but each member of the team played his part in our success.

BORN TO RUN

Running: Progress by advancing each foot alternately never having both on ground at same time. We tried this in full stride but with many obstacles, including: sewage trucks (souveniers anyone), golf balls (watch out Jeff), but Fast Macs pulled us through. Three Musketeers (social group) coming on strong, the faster you run the sooner you finish! That is if you don't get lost (Marty-ton compass) Ken and Robin follow instructions. Totally awesome Colin but don't kill yourself. Jerry's and cheap trophies. Mathieu's runner's cut. Wet season. We missed ya Set! Thanks Dr. Bob, Micheal J. # TAKE ON ME

Field Hockey

This was our most successful season ever. Thanks to the great coaching by Miss Lane we were able to end the season with a 10-0 record and were Quebec provincial champions. We were also very lucky to be able to travel to New Brunswick for our opening tournament. There we began our winning streak. We hope that next years season will be as successful. Thanks to all the team for their enthusiasm!

Good luck!

Participation

Do you want enthusiasm? We have it in Participation! While doing Jane Fonda we "Make it burn" until there's nothing left to burn. The music is groovy and those "last eight" are killers, but we do it all. Once a week there's the B.U. experience, whether it's running, walking, or splashing around in the pool. Overall we have a great time because the competition is ourselves. "If I can do it, you can do it".

NATALIE BANDRAUK

"Give me a hug!!", have any VODKA lately??? Just kidding. A lot has happened over the past four years: carrot cakes --- tennis camp, suck ties, cadets, house captain, injuries! Of course there is a lot more which went on, . . . but not all of it was legal! Guess I shouldn't forget Marcus & the boys hey?? I know no matter what happens we'll always be friends. Never forget me, 'cause I'll never forget you! Love Wizzy!

SLOANE BARTHOLOMEW

Sloner. You were the most awesome roommate and dancing to Juke Box Faves of the 50's was raging, not to mention thrashing to Violent Femmes. When I'm rich and famous I want to send you a life supply of Harvest Crunch and apple sauce, but only if you send me a chocolate Palm Tree. Chapel was radical, though we didn't sing or pray - we laughed. Remember that song, that great song? Please do, love Sarah.

ERIC BECKER

So Big Bec . . . or . . . Uncle Eric (indecisiveness!) Thanx for always being there. I hope this summer meant something . . . whenever you need a lift . . . thanx for the memories in the Bec-Mobile, (to . . . Montreal!), or bloody nose, chugging . . ., long intense talks, night swimming, M.L., Ha! Ha!, the parties . . ., Kahlua, parks & much laughter and tears. You have added a lot to many, many people's lives. (Clothes)! . . .

You won't be forgotten. Love always J.B-L. & K.V.

P.S. . . . There'll be time to sleep when the journey's over . . .

DAVID BRODEUR

David's five years at B.C.S. have been very productive during which he has compiled a compilation of comments to suit every occasion ranging from girl's black stocking's to retardation. Being the primary recipients of his comments we feel deep down that he does really love us (you do don't you?) and when he has the odd additional vacation we really miss him, as we will in years to come. Up-Lad - When the journey's over there will be time enough to sleep.

Love your 3 S.W.'s

KEVIN BROWN (Prefect)

I've got to hand it to you "Kevy-baby", I can't think of anyone who has more determination and drive than you do and still knows how to laugh. In the two years you've been here, you've really proven yourself -- be it in sports, cadets (RSM), academics . . . all aspects of B.C.S. life. You've got a special goal. Good luck! Puis les minijupes, qu'en penses-tu?! It's been great . . .

Love, Nat

P.S.: I want an invitation to the wedding!

ANGELA BUNGE

We began our years at B.C.S. as two shy and innocent girls. We've held ropes and became what we are now!! As years went by, we became aware of each others feelings. We laughed, cried, played jokes on each other and broke rules. Now it's time to leave and live another life. Ang, you will always be in my heart! Your friendship means the world to me!

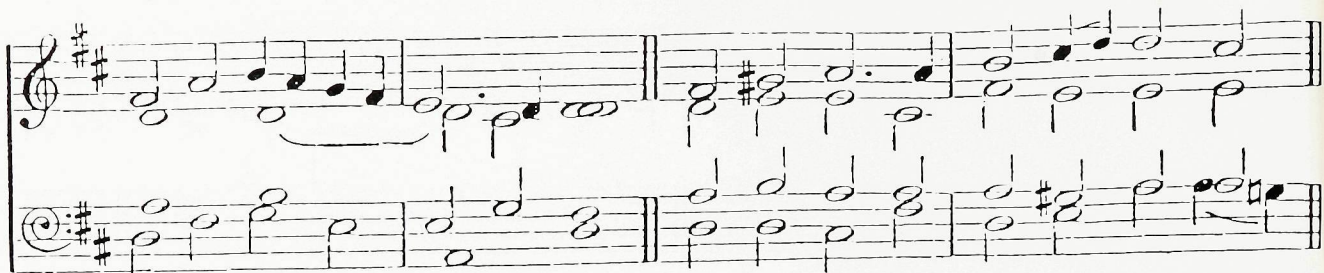

Love Always Maria Luisa

P.S. Piano Concerts Anyone??

MARIA BUSQUETS

Empecemos manana! Our motto. Will we survive the winter? The sun's out so lets wear shorts. I guess we were mistaken, the Canadians don't live in igloos. You are easy to influence; peanut butter, cereal, and pizza - never enough! Gringa, you don't understand! Maria, you require patience but it's worth all the crazy laughter you spread. Your flirtacious moods and my serious moods join us like two peas in a pod. Thanks for always being my cousin! Mi Amor, Sloane.

SARAH CABOTT (Prefect)

Sarah Cabott (3 t's, 4 t's!!!) Cabottski, it's been three long, hard, wonderful years. Too many memories! That fateful (fifties) night drinking what?!! Sitting in your room during Prep - Shhh!!! Tricia's blush brush! T. the Fiary on Jr. Basketball; Beauty & Boogie Bob on Sr! Matrics, AFTER-GRAD!!! 7th Form - our own bathroom! Thanks sweetheart for always being there. This year was for laughing, crying, worrying and BOYS!! T.T, K.M. and never forget big M.E.!!

Through 'Sick and Sin' Love you & miss you already, ZIM . .

GENEVIEVE CARLE

Sisters? Blueberry, Malibu, Ben, Stiches, the MEN . . . both of them! Two problems: one solution, traditions, hickies, education, "Now I'm seventeen!", survival, "I don't know but this is yucky!!", and all that good stuff. We've been through it all, and that's what makes our friendship so special. What we've acquired over the past eight years will never end. You'll always have a very special place in my heart. love, Wizz!!!

CINDY CARLISLE

Mindy Mindy Mindy. It's gone so fast and we have done so much. Never forget - HIM(MG). Or me or BCS or all the things you've done and said. When you feel down or scared remember you can find comfort . . . Enough! Get out there and PARTY!!! Don't forget "Your money for nothing and your roosters for free!" And make it work. Lots of love Cracker.

TIMOTHY CLOUTTE

T, Hutch, Sonny Crockett, Groin, these are only a couple of our names for the prettiest guy in seventh form. Who shot JR? Golf hockey, Jogging for the groin, football when he was healthy was great at them all. He leaves a legacy of disillusioned women. To great times in MONTreal and in the future your buddy,

Double-Trouble

KATE CRUICKSHANK
(Prefect)

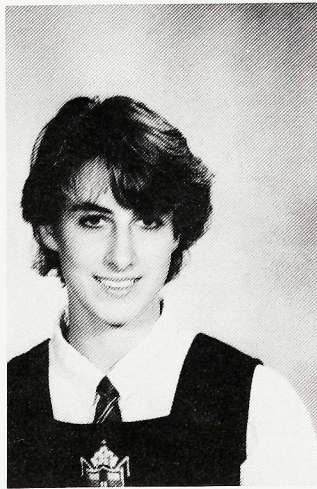

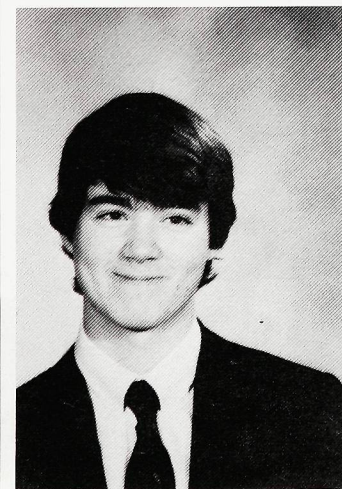

Since your semi freedom, I've gotten to know you well. This includes your 'death stares' and your seldom but meaningful smiles. Always remember . . . cars, all types!, driving, weird experiences in the night . . .!, Aces babycakes, Bonus, telephone calls, money, shopping, clothes, doctors, tractors, MUSIC, Knowlton, dancing, Francis, waiting for buses, ducking down, trains. November Break, COKE, Bad moods - me!?!; poutines, jealousy in every sense . . . I'll never forget!

Thanx for being there,
UGBUG.

SEAN CUNNINGHAM

It always seems that if you try to write one of these things you always mess it up. Therefore this article shall not be a load of garbage about irrelevant achievements and over-emphasised failures. So . . . thanks to all who made my time here what it was. See you all in the future. - It doesn't matter if you win or lose, it's how you look doing it - G.I.L.U.S.C

RICHARD DEJONG

This is DICK's grad article! It's still the same old story. Characters change; events rearrange. Plot seems to wear real thin. Coffins call for running men. Hated or adored. Everything goes by the board. But Time Never Goes By. Up lad: When the journey's over there'll be time enough to sleep . . . Thanks for all the good times Dick. See you on the other side.

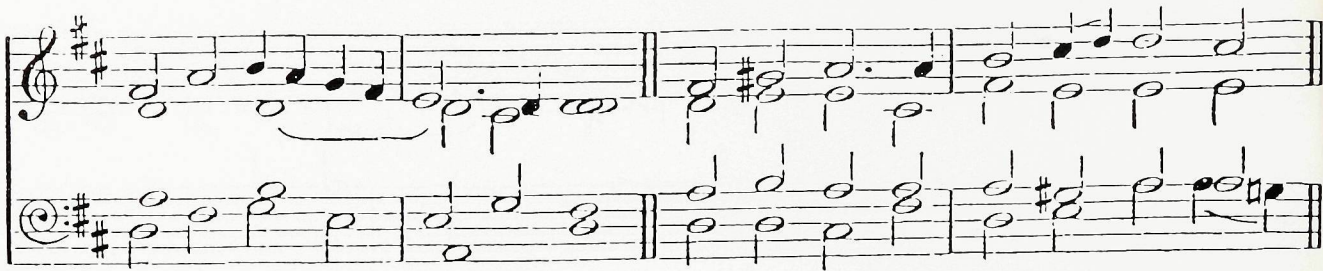

- J.T. & the boys.

CAROLINE DOMINGUE

Squash anyone? It's one of those days again!: Wanna hear about it? Guys, I wanna sleep!! (2 minutes later) what did you say? You're SOOO sarcastic! But I'm new! Looking for Halloween masks sir!? Come here, kid! Get me some ice cream, will you? MELARIOUS! I'm not tired . . . my brain just isn't working as fast. Thanks to all my friends for making my life here so wonderful. NOW let's PARTY!!!

Best of luck, L.B.

LYN GAUTHIER

How do you always manage to be last out of bed and first out the door? Tell us cutie! "What are you doing in MY annex?" No. 2 procrastinator but no. 1 McDonald's and Doritos fan. "I hope there are dollar chips this morning!" Our regular little doormouse - You're so cute when you're asleep. Well, looks like another ugly Saturday morning, Lyne - fancy going cheesy? We'll miss the champ camel - jockey next year. Let's go Concordes!! Love,

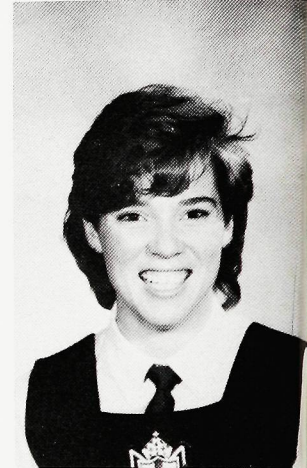

The Annex

HEATHER GOW

Gether How? The middle finger just has to go. Hey guys let's go Heather's on tuck! Do you want an apple Heather - "no" Are you sure? - "Well I guess so." The quiet one who cries alot - Oh my god those Sundays! Get it on Heather and bang you're gong - you're great on guitar but PLEASE straighten those knees! Tuck owes Heather 1 dollar. Gillard's superjock - What a golfer! (Watch out Jack Nicklaus!) Who's Mr. S.? - flowers?! You are a little slow and spazy but we love you!

Love your fellow weepy eyes.

P.S. David, Bruce and Sting love you! I know I have connections!

FERNAND GRENIER

... And these children that you spit on As they try and change their worlds Are immune to your consultations. They're quite aware what they're going through ... David Bowie.

FERNARD, Madonna, Harrison Ford, football - yeeesh!!! CUTE (grrr!!) borrowed (?) clothes, Have NAgila, Bavarian bashes, The Faithful Facial Contortionists Club, tickle fights!! S.C. - your woman!!! yellow blue vase GISMO

ANDREW HALL (Head Prefect)

Andrew coming back to B.C.S. this year was a great asset. He made the football team that much more fun in devastating the opposition. The Road Show at Ontario Place was the best, the females were quite mature. The summer was great, avoid B.B. on the Trans Can avec Van Halen. Rock on, Mama. G.M.H! Weekends in Montreal were crazy & Florida can't wait for our arrival. Looking forward to whatever ... B.E., P.A., A.A., and I WANT TO ROCK!!!
your pal, Michael (R.K.)

JOANNA HALL

Hiya Baby. A straight - laced English girl who brought dignity, culture and morality, and other new words (pass me some loo- roll!) to the Annex These Canadian men are pretty yummy (one in particular) eh?! She gradually grew to love her tunics! The hair --- Barbara Streistrand look alike --- and she can even sing!?! Social butterfly from day one. Don't take the *** out of me!!! (PLEASE). You'll never have study parties like that in England! Don't ever forget us Jo-Jo!

Love always, The Annex.

SHENAZ JAFFER

When Shenaz finally emerged from the garbage can having lost her contact lens (again) we found out she was really quite a nice girl. No one worth liking here eh Shenaz? Better go study economics You'd think with all those carrots and mayo she wouldn't even need those contact lenses. I've had no sugar for three days! And those calls from Africa we all love you M + D. Are Sammy and Shenaz going out? We all love you for always being there.

Love the annex chics

CAROL JAMES

How do you feel about that? Annexe, Missy, Zoe, 5:00 A.M. parties, les heures, Rochelle, Trish, Leah, reggae, Marley, good clean trashy novels, Pascal, isn't that cute? Everchanging moods, Divine Inspiration, Sonia, I hate fractions, BEAUTY AMEN, farmer Jane, McDonald's cookies, PH D's in procrastination, Tony (if we can't have him, no one will) Sophia, it's endless . . . I'll love you forever and ever, xoxo Sarah

KAREN JANUS

Though physically at B.C.S, Karen's heart was left in Hamilton with her Prince Charles. I'll never forget your "HEE HEE HEE" & very high strung temper along with your other contributions to B.C.S: J.F.L. hair, half eaten Geo chair, & a lot of breezy air. But seriously Karen, you were a super friend, caring, helping & ready to take awesome weekends with me. GOOD LUCK PRINCESS, may the future hold great times. Love your roomie Claire

JONATHAN KEYTE

Jolly good show old chap! Jon has engraced us with his PRESENCE this year. Unfortunately it will be his last. For Warwick University has caught his eye for the future. Known for decoding the odd equation or two, Jon was also an active member in the athletic department, competing on the competitive squash and football teams. It's been a definite experience. Good luck, and don't party too hard; Dunc.

JENNIFER LAW

To our annex retard who always made herself real purdy in the morning for all those heart throbs. FMC WMC, Minnow called, shop's being bought out, TUCK! But Jen you're doing well considering you're supposed to be in 5th form. Excelling in Female Participation (Jane Fonda eat your heart out) "You're eighteen years old, you're eighteen years old, you look like you're fourteen and you act like you're nine."

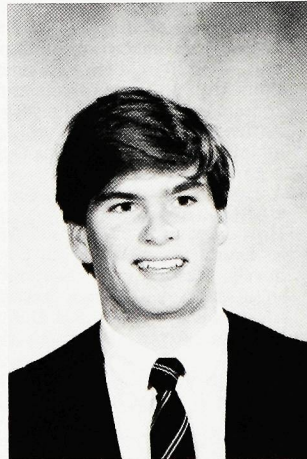

Love your favourite retards

DUNCAN MACKENZIE

Hey who's that red head grinning in denim? Oh he wants to play basketball does he. A little short don't you think? hey not bad! Although things have changed many memories exist: huddles, Colsy's, beyond the tennis courts, your great theatrical debut (what lines!), all the talks. You survived Dunc!!

Love M.B. & J.B.L.

KENNETH MACLEOD

Ken's from Scotland (exchange) I think that sums it up. All seriousness aside, he wasn't at all what we expected! In fact he turned out to be an incredible guy - (I still owe him ten bucks). Ken's initiation into B.C.S. culture was Chapman house, Double-Trouble and the inimitable Mr. C. It's no wonder he had at first a distorted image of the school. Ken has become a great friend to a great many people, especially Tony, Tim, Steph, Lyne, Sarah and many more. Good luck in the future, Sonny and Otter

MICHAEL MCCRORY

I always wondered why Mike was called "Medic Mike". Soon I learned that the route to the C.H.U. was a routine for Mike. Broke any fingers on a Nerf ball lately? Mike's passion for trains must have come after the choir trip to Toronto. And why were YOU on the HEADMASTER'S LIST? We all know that it wasn't for academics. I actually began to think that timing hockey games on Saturday nights was your favourite pastime.

Go REDSKINS; keep in touch, Luv Kate

NELSON MORALES-BELLO

We've been through a heck of a lot in 5 years: Head smashing in North, a tennis ball banquet with Vince, The 'friction' speech, "close the door." playing goalie, the cheapshots, comebacks, and cutdowns, my nose at TCS, and the flute on the bus back, Goin' fishin', "my neck is so sore", "I had the wierdest dream last night", 7's and MacGovern?, Numero 15 blanc-Rudesse, the nick-names, Whistle? What Whistle? I didn't hear a Whistle, Intervals. But just remember little buddy, to be good, you gotta be bad.

Pat

CLARISSA MORAWSKI (Prefect)

Claire was tuff, no one could push her around, literally. But all seriousness aside. Who's shirt is that, your father's? She was colourful like the seasons (mainly summer, green). She was responsible and mature, ask any second form boy. She was a great contribution to the school and a good friend. Good luck B.B. and I hope you do well at the Big Q or if worst comes to worst RMC with . . . Luv always M.E. & N.M.

CHRISTOPHER NAKASH

the chill of night

- Shiki (1867-1902)

JONATHAN PAUL

- We never did find out your last name. A Blundell's Exchange Student who arrived in January, bringing a smile to the faces of quite a few of us girls. An English Man Abroad! Downhill and X-C skiing, mingled with constant visits to Mr. D's "Waxing and Stripping" shop. Jon was honoured by being awarded his own trophy for endeavour in X-C skiing, One term down and one to go. Captaining rugby and TANNING seemed to be of premier importance in the spring term, (getting in practise for California!) Thanks for all the good times, and always being there.

Jo.

FELIPE REY

Portrait of an existentialist legend. Carlos "The Animal" Felipe Rey was shipped to us in sixth form. Felipe was not your ordinary CASANOVA. The female population thought he was shy and innocent, but we at McNaughton house knew him better for his nocturnal activities. Lunch time was Felipe's greatest academic asset. Being an avid fan of sixty's music, he deplored Kasey Kasen's top forty, and other modern music lovers. Good luck at M.I.T. my existentialist friend, (Ha Ha) and I hope you become a blue collar worker.

Forever your friends C.N. & R.R.

KATE RIDDELL

It's been three long years T.C, and now you're finally on your own. No more . . . "I'm going for a walk" (watch out for trains). When's the wedding? (Burt). John from "The Breaky Club" wishes you a MERRY X'MAS! Soap City after 3:00 pm. "Wanna go to Lennoxville . . . egg rolls please." Even though you use the Webster name, you're still just a Riddell. It's all over Kate, relax and take your walk where ever you want!! The terrorists above.

MARIA RIVERA (Prefect)

Two years; not a long period of time. But in this short time, our friendship kept on growing and growing. Until finally, we are as we are now, very close and special friends. Not seeing and talking to you in the coming years, will be difficult; but you will always have a special place in my heart, where I'll never forget you. As my saying goes: "In your garden of love, plant me a flower called forget me not."

Love always Sherif

RAYMOND ROBERGE (Prefect)

Prefect Ray (Romeo, Burger, Flash) came stumbling into B.C.S. using and abusing a lot of things. But events such as getting thrown down the laundry chute or getting into fights with JUNE BUG sure woke you up quick . . . "No Ray, only one movie." You dabbled in such sports as Football, Hockey, but stuck to digging divots in the spring. Your nocturnal activities and tremendous contributions will be missed (by few . . .) HaHa

Yours forever Pumpkin 008

RICHARD SHUM

Hey buddy, how now? In his two and a half years here, Richard managed, in his quiet way, to attain a level of some authority, despite his relative youth. His help was often sought but recognition rarely given, but this did not deter him from always being ready to help. For those going on we salute you.

ANTHONY TORRIANI

Two incredible years at B.C.S have left Tony scarred for life by a warped mind and personality. His exploits in Montreal with Tim and Steph have been characterized as dangerous to his health however he still returns every break intact and untouched by rumour. He has picked up various nicknames, all intended to describe his moods and character - Otter, Caspar the friendly ghost, Double-Trouble and the White Shadow. He was once nice but it seems he has become distorted by Too many Weekends at B.C.S and so sometimes he is "mean and obnoxious" - so what! Have fun

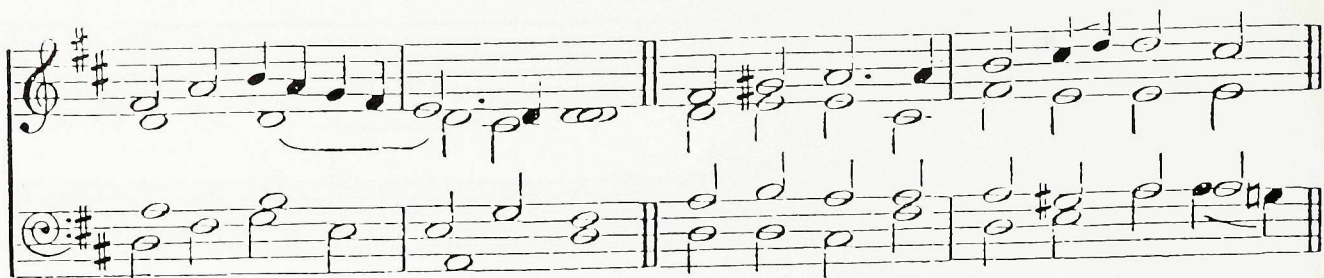

T and T

SOPHIA VAYDA

And the lady said "you can check out any time you like but you can never leave." Days of fun and frolic spent romping on the green hills of pedagogy. A truly rounded education is hard to describe on paper. Paper has little to do with a truly rounded education. Sophia honey, it almot seems we've seen and done it all, you know what I mean! Being exhausted at seventeen ... to Bruce from you, special minds. Let's go on a picnic; mental release ...

Sarah

KATHERINE VELAN

KAT-AREEN, SHELF, PEABODY, B.B., What a roomie. Awesome. Coke really is it! "You guys! What am I going to wear?" "Dress me, please!" Bonus. Excitement Plus! $10.00 special. Watching the yellow line go under the car again Weird experiences in the night. Much fun eating lobster, 24 hr. T.V. and diamonds.

Just remember, where ever you go, you'll always be in ecstasy!

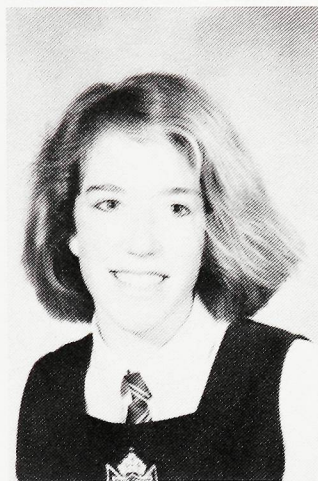

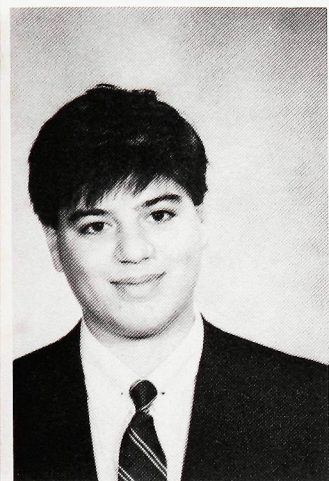

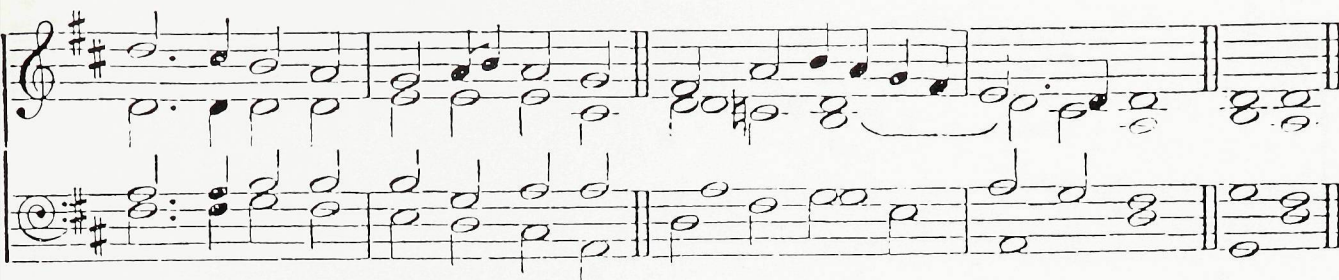

LOVE K.V., C.S., T.S., J.B-L.

CAROLINE YEATS

Dear Caroline (and may I stress the INE) or should I say Pumpkin? Let's make a deal: you get Rob if you find me an Italian Stallion o.k? What would I do without you? (Besides work during spares, drop dead during races, and fall into rivers.) Well roomie, don't ever forget the munchies, the "how pleasants", the mid-night jogs by the pizza-parlour, the ham sandwich, and above all; ME! Love ya, Wally

PETER BAKOS

Once upon a time, there was a boy that came to B.C.S., his name was Peter Bakos. Very big for his age. His first year was quite boring, but the moment I came along, I made it exciting. For example, we had fun hiding under trees, while watching Mr. Cruickshank do his rounds at about 3:30 A.M. We also had good times playing sports together. Good luck in the future Pete. - Big Al -

MICHELLE BANHAM

Hey Mich is there anybody out there? To the unforgettable train ride leading to an interesting weekend and our unique friendship. May our kinetic energy never die! Sköl! Barbarian who's the pepper? LOVE blows away - In all seriousness - A HOME -

JOHN BEATTY

Arriving late didn't seem to matter much. Your awful hockey, and superb V-ball added some excitement to the games. From pillow fights and threats to the hardest of all, understanding. Enjoy life and don't take it so serious. I know you don't think so, love always, Bun.

PAUL BEAUREGARD

Ignoring us? That's O.K.; we know you're moody. Football players really are, and Paul's the best captain the Junior team ever had! Paul asked me to give credit to his best friend Alex Detre; without him, the rough times would've been alot worse. AIM: To be on the 'VICE' . . . DESTINY: To see Alex accomplish it instead. (Take care Dete Vice.)

Yael BENGUIGUI

 See you soon, next year!

FRASER BERTRAM
 Fraz, since second form has struggled and achieved many goals that very few can reach.
 He's great in school, sports and laughs, but one thing exceeds all; RUNNING. By far the best in the school and one of the best if not the best in Quebec.
 One of his main achievements includes winning the Provincials. Thanx for the great laughs and great times. See you next year. Remember Northern Lights. Love, A.B. & T.E.

ROY BROOKE

Hey Roomie,
We've been roomies for two years, and we've been thru a lot, starting with Kraft Dinner fights, to seeing skunks at the famed Colsy's, and I've loved ALMOST every minute of it!! Skank! Watch Out! Here comes the Mirror Man! Gian & Baycrest . . . From all of our problems, we've learnt that talking to each other makes us feel "ALL-RIGHT" P-u-r-r-fect! You're a great guy even though you live in Fredricton!
love, Marc

CAROLYN BUNCAMPER

Carolyn, I think we have to talk. Major depression soon to be eliminated by wishful grad dates (Tim). Coconut, Hugh and McNaughton house (you like that one don't you?). Vice, Benetton and CARNATIONS! Warming ourselves up with tea parties and tuck raids seemed perfect at 2:00 A.M. No New Years resolution for you ya big geek. You thought you'd get rid of me easily, eh? Beware the summer is still to come. Luv always, roomie. XOX

COLIN BUNGE

From Ontario you came into fifth form and quickly took charge. Perhaps the only thing that set you off track was your ever present ability to break bones. Probably due to that cursed room in McNaughton. How ever did you manage to survive with a Bruins fan? Now you are in sixth form, you're head of activities committee (which you rightly deserve) and you stumbled upon your talent for X-Country running (2nd in the cross-country)

Your bone breaking buddy, Mike

ROCHELLE CANTOR

Hey Roach,
Good-morning to life -- fooled ya . . . Remember: Quebec city, Black Tower & Escargots, 5 for us & none for you, you only wish, S.T. P.E. + R.C. = BF forever. And thanks for caring! Love Ariana xoxo P.S. Special thanks Mom and Dad. I'll miss you: A.B., N.S., N.J., C.S., H.H., Bagelyboo, Def. Partner, and Nanc.

CHARLES COLEMAN

Charles came to B.C.S. five long years ago in second form. He's come a long way from N.S.L. to many extra activities and sports: choir, band, soccer, x-country skiing, and rugby. Known for his incredible computer skills he has also helped many of us out of trouble with science prep. Always ready with a joke sometimes good but always memorable. Thanks for five great years Chuck. Hope your back next year.

F.B.

THEMIS EFRAIMIDIS

The Greek. We've known you now for three years. We have had lots of ups and downs together. We have participated with you in a lot of teams, you have always seem to excell more than anyone else on the team whether it was football, hockey or Rugby, but not golf. Your friendship will always remain true to us for years to come. P.S. (sorry about mike in your car) R.R. M.M.

KENNETH EVANS

Don't worry about missing that two inch putt Ken, I'm the only one watching. Where's your five wood, Ken? Oh yeah, I like Tummy Waston too. Kenny, you look like you have just come from the squash courts. Oh, I think I have a migraine! The times have been great Ken. Thanks - Sam

ISABELLE GENDRON

ALEXANDRA GERSTEIN

And the lady said "you can check out anytime you like, but you can never leave." Days of fun and frolic spent romping on the green hills of pedagogy with friends. Functioning with Kate H, our pneumas mingling as we danced through the tartuffes pecksniffian songs. If you go alone, they think you're crazy. If there are three of you, they think it's an organization . . . with 50, it's a movement.

ERIC GRENIER

Hi buddy, how's your sax life? For five years I've been your other half. Together we experienced the real taste of life. "Wake up, we're going jogging!"; "Why are these roads slanted, man?" The music building . . . a space oddity. We've seen the world together - Thunder Bay to Lake Megantic . . . Edinborough: "Eric, stop staring . . ."; "Wade he's got a hole in his head." 50's partners in crime - nothing has ever exceeded our friendship. Your past and future roommate, and Heaven Companion. Love forever, Wade

ELIZABETH HAMILTON

Her first time and she fell asleep. Her taste in music is questionable. So much for being a jock, Baby! One term on participation and your a wimp! You broke Mr Perrier's heart. Daring. Oh, keep them guessing. Who would have thought that operators finishing work at four would keep you going for days. You're all heart, Sweetie. I just love Hallowe'en candies. UGH!

In between Dick's garage, on the beach in Peterborough, trains to T.O., singing in the choir, playing in the band, driving around Ottawa ripping phone books (B.H. & A.B.), marching in Montreal, playing senior soccer, Scotland. This guys never had fifty! Last night '85, why so many cops man? Three muskateers in South. The basement boys. Wake up Fryer, there giving you a roofy. You guys are picking on me again. Thanks for the good times mon. E.G., W.P., (and brother, S.C. and all you other lovely people.

SAMMY JAFFER

After adjusting to B.C.S, I now find it easier to talk with people from the school. This school is like a big family in which you take a big part of. Many people have helped me adjust to this school and I am very thankful to them. My special thanks to Alex Detre for being such a wonderful friend. Good luck next year Deets.

NICOLA JONES

Hey you super sarcastic Port Hoper! We stuck together like glue and you taught me many things (like how to laugh and how to lie!) but we had a heck of a time. Such rebels! I'll never forget letting our frustrations out on L.C. Remember powder fights, cadet berets and let's forget cadet camp and dirty bathtubs. This is not good-bye Nicola it's just the beginning of a life long friendship. Love Heather. Remember: Mt. Mansfield, blind folds. We love you and miss you. A.B. & A.C

JOHN KOVACH

I would like to dedicate this article to my roommate; John Kovach. His considerate nature has always been appreciated. When you ask him to help; he will come to your aid. His sportsmanship is to be compared with his ability. He is one of the few people I know who takes sports as a challenging form of excitement, and not as a monotonous undertaking. A.Y.

KEITH LASCELLES

What, ja gonna do about it? Keith landed at B.C.S. in the wrong decade, and just didn't realize it. This mistake left him with a strange fascination for hair, and flared jeans. Keith, playing J.C. does not give you an excuse to have shoulder length plus, hair. Also, Saturday afternoon forays into the real world can prove to be dangerous. Being an athletic, rugged type, Gymnastics, Curling and A.T. occupied his crease schedule, but to no avail.

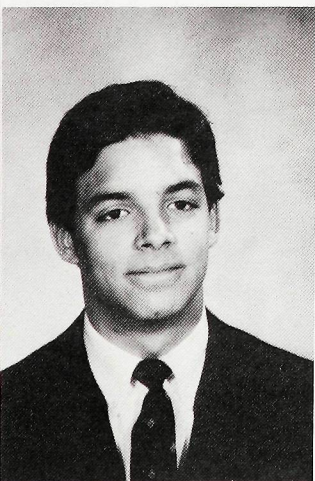

- How's your bird's lumbago? - D.O.M.

PATRICK LEBLOND

Well Pat for the past five years we've had a good time together. Playing for the GHOSTBUSTERS, then the BRUIZE BROTHERS, and to top it off you going from prop to wing. Well if you don't come back, I wish you the best of luck, and by the way dont forget, WE DON'T WANT TO HURT NOBODY, WE JUST WANT TO MAKE THEM HURT.

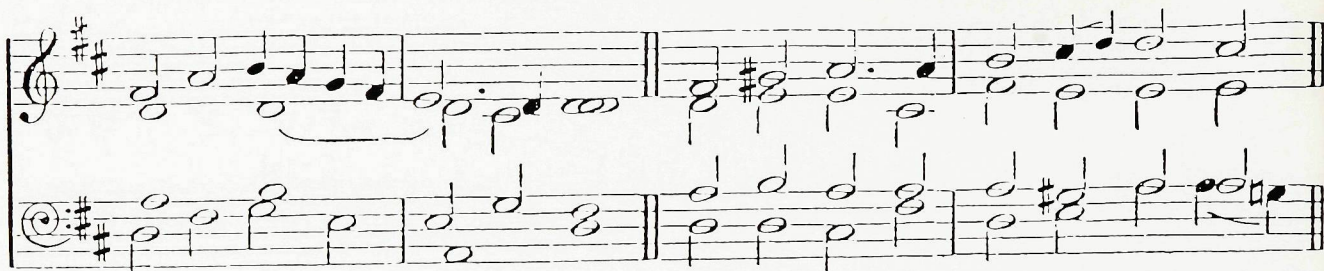

Later Gator.

STEPHANIE LEHOUX

Dear Steph, my favourite vectors class friend and surprise visitor, evil-eye worshipper, and creator of the infamous Stephanie-isms: squeak (accompanied by charming violin motions) and "Ah! How horrid!" You, who always show mercy on your weakling and greenish, bulgy-eyed friends -- what would I do without your reassuring growl and special "Hi-i Alex" in the mornings? As your hair's got shorter and shorter, we've got closer, so keep it short! Love ya, Alex

AUDREY LEMIEUX

Auds, Audrey the blonde, beautiful bombshell! Came into BCS "5" years ago, with her gum to gum smile. She's kept everyone laughing ever since. We've been the best of friends. It's hard to believe it's almost come to an end. I couldn't have done it without you! Remember: C.B!!! Slow motion glass . . . Oh my god! Is that your father! Cross-Country's ahh! The night the lights went out. Always remember: "I CAN'T SMILE WITHOUT YOU!!!!"

Love Julie

COLLETTE LENFEST

Hello for you Sally, Charlie Brown. Gillard says "thanks for the clothes!" Rubber Biscuit Fat and bossy mmm . . . minty green! You can walk a mile for a 'CAMEL' but let's make like Mr. Chesterfield and satisfy. Speaking of miles Deb., remember Stowe?! No Collette you don't look like Nancy W. try and get a better I.D.! I'll let you go back to the States if you promise not to part your hair down the middle and take a ride to South Dakota in a light blue DaSota. Thanks a lot kid. See you in Ohio!

DAVID LOVE

I would like to dedicate this article to Dave Love; otherwise known as Youpie. Dave my short little friend, is a good pal of mine. He has taken away boredom from many slumbering function classes. His football technique running to a huddle, kicking his feet and joyfully yapping Youpie always adds life to a game. Hope his happy smile stays for the year. Youp . . . Youp . . . Youp . . . Youpie!

ACE

ANDREW MACLACHLAN

Andy came to Bishop's this year a little shy, but when about half the school came up to him and asked him if he was going to play football, his sense of humour came out and his shyness disappeared. His willingness to play a sport he had never played before showed off when he received the "Rookie of the Year Award". Too bad your mother's not here to tuck you in. Keep smiling

Ken & Sam

NICHOLAS MACIOGE

It was already Thursday but his lordship's artificial limb could not be found; therefore, having directed the servants to fill the baths, he seized the tongs and set out at once for the edge of the lake, where the Throttlefoot Spectre still loitered in a distraught manner. Edward Gorey

JULIE MAHFOOD

If there was ever a record for being undecided, Julie would break it! In respect of clothes AND boys. Let's hope by the end of the year she'll be a bit more 'tame'! Always complaining about her assets (hips and pectoral area). FAVOURITE EXPRESSION: "He's Sooo cute . . ." Julie is fun, and as we Jamaicans would say, she's 'irie'

DINO MANIEFFI

After two years of summer school, Dino finally decided to come to B.C.S. for 5th form. Although Dino wasn't born English he managed to do well enough in 5th and did even better in 6th form. He played first team soccer both years and mastered squash very quickly. And another thing I must add, is that Dino was one of the rare species of Buffalo Sabres fan at the school.

Hope to see you next year!
Y.M. & Mini Pot

YANICK MARTIN

Shipped over from Baie-Comeau, Yanick came to B.C.S. to improve his English. Academically, in sixth form, he worked very hard to achieve good marks. Although, Yanick wasn't a sport freak, he participated in track, skiing and participation with motivation. His interests include blasting his ear out with his roommate's stereo, going on bisques and having good times. I must say that overall Yanick is a good guy. A l'annee prochaine sinon a bientot . . . D.M.

DEAN MCDOUGALE

AMANDA MCELMAN

This weird Newby arrived here, to distort the peaceful life of Glass, with that unforgettable laugh. Occasionally she'd join the tea parties held upstairs. Zeat enjoys Tony's, but to make up for it, she became close friends with Jane. JAWS! TONY?! corn souffle. Secret rendezvous with Herb at 2 by the poolside. California improved her color. Great tuck person, even though the gummy bears haunted her.

Don't Let The Turkey's Get You Down!

Love always, Bun, Trish and Lisa.

SASHA MENEZES

Vivaldi at 4 a.m.?! - pyjama flag - Airwolf dies (Ha!) "why d'you scream?" Sasha, you liar! Picasso's cool. From secret admirer to secret spy! Who took our windows? Watch out here comes Karate Kween* What?! Too much coffee - we'll just have to discuss God. "I think therefore I exist" NO work, all Sleep . . . Nightmares to friday night parties . . . Hey babe, take a walk on the wild side . . . shrink* XO, Etha Bunny

IAN MOREHEAD

To succeed, one must attack the school with umph!! With all the social activities, it is easy to become fully engulfed. But to succeed, such occurrences can't happen. I can safely say that the beneficial way, is to watch, instead of getting fully involved. Anyhow, I have enjoyed my journey, it taught me a lot, and has given my future more hope in succeeding. I learned to work well and efficiently. Thanks Mrs. Detchon, it surely meant a great deal.

D.A.

JASMINE

N'TOUTOUME-OBAME

"HEY! Jamaica 'ooman!" Remember Jazz? Pizza tonight? No! It's fattening Jups. Oh, what the heck! No more tuck, PLEASE! I'm about to explode! Please don't force me to go to dinner with you guys. Let's go play basketball instead and burn off those calories! A diet freak she is! We had fun. I know I drove you crazy with the subject of guys, but what else is there in life?

Aim in life: To become anorexic.

Destiny: To make 'Loverboy' at LEAST say hello . . .

TONYA NEVE

Tonya, Five years of B.C.S. food, work, and play - one year living on campus. Three years with me in which we've become the best of friends. Knowing a person and her knowing you. Ready and willing to help (SAPPY). Thanks Ton, it's been really great, besides the few "highlights" of certain encounters. You may be LOUD, OBNOXIOUS, RUDE, but that makes you. So who cares! . . . hope you have a great 7th form.

WADE PAPIN

Hey Pal, how's your Sax life? Reach far into that old "bag of tricks" . . . the bizarre . . . the unexpected. Rooming together really did it to us. Sour grape imitations, Patting kids in shopping centers, and getting beamed from the music building to . . . ? - I knew you'd join me in the 50's club someday. I'd never go anywhere or be anything without you. We've seen Europe (us big Rugbymen) and next time, we sure aren't gonna miss Holland. Farewell, wherever you fare. Love forever, your Heaven Companion, Eric.

KEIR PESCHLOW

My roommate, otherwise known as Keir "ELVIS" Peschlow has confused me many ways this year. His assortment of Bauhaus and Blancmange albums have got me thinking that if there was a hardcore Neil Young, Keir would be his greatest fan . . . Sam W.

GILLIAN PHILLIPS

Gigi, soup, Gil-li-ann, Graham, Trent, Carl, Al, Philip, Lud's Babe, Johnny. Any more Gillian? Oh yeah Patrick. Hello der daling. Perry Ellis! "we're just going down to talk". "I'm quitting", "drink? Moi?". Yes DJ's is my second home! "Can I borrow . . . NO!". "Tutto Bene!" James Taylor. "Oh my Gwad" "Later Aligator" Hypocrite, Colsy's, Tar's Babes my best friend, Georgetown! Birks. "it looks just like a Ferrari" "just use my credit card" Dad I have to go shopping. Foster, Louis Vouiton Bloomingdales! ANDIAMO CIAO! Love C.S., K.V., T.M., A.W., T.S.

GENEVIEVE PROVENCHER

Even though you joined the school a little on the late side, your cheerful smile was readily accepted in the school and you are now a very distinguished member of the school! An active member of the volleyball team in your first term - and you did make the badminton team! Well keep up that average! And see you back here next year. Love always A.V. & J.N.

PIERRE RANCOURT

It was a tough beginning for me here in this school. Always going to french public school before this year, I wasn't used to the way of life here at B.C.S. But with the help of my friends and teachers adapting to life here has been very fast and easy. And I'd like to take this little space of paper to thank them all.
See you, Pierre Rancourt

ALEX RETZLEFF

I really don't know what to say about this short person from Lennoxville, apart from the fact that she is 1/64 Mohawk Indian and a GREAT friend. I've only known Alex for two years and in that time I've come to know her very well. From late-night term papers to midnight jogs to "ham sandwiches". As for her occasional attacks of the HICCUPS (!!), well what can I say . . . Anyway I'll miss ya lots next year, Wally. HUMBUG!!
Luv "Eimoor"

ANDRES ROJAS

Andres arrived in 5th form without knowing much English, but that did not stop him from having a great academic year and being on the Headmaster's List. He showed everybody that he was a good sportman, specially in soccer where he made the 1st team very easily. By following my instructions he even became a good squash player. The only bad thing we can say about Andres is that he's a Nordique's fan.

JAMES SCHEIB

Five years, IHA, Band, Rugby, Bilodeau's party Scottish Tour, fatigues, hiccups on parade, misconduct penalties, yellow cards, removed from rugby game Kinks Procter - 2:30, Frankie, Dylan, Bobby T., Bruize Brothers Sons of Allah - backs, vince, GTA, Afros #7 Sheeb, Uncle Jessie, Nelson, La Brise, Tones Crunch, exams - Nelson, Cowboy - Btm Hockey, never, Refs, HA RW, Papa Smurf, Arbic Connection, ZA box lunches. CHOW

LISA SETLAKWE

Lisa, I think we have to talk. Major depression soon to be eliminated by wishful grad dates (Andy) From a watery first term to skiing. What was it? The ski instructors or ski lover (D.T.). Warming ourselves up with tea parties and tuck raids seemed perfect at 2:00 A.M. Let's not forget a certain carnation card which all came about at D.J.'s. That New Years resolution. You thought you'd get rid of me easily, eh? Beware, the summer is still to come. Luv always, roomie. XOX Thanx especially to the awesome SETS

PATRICIA SHAW

Tough, unique, bad, bold & sassy!! What a team Don. Nailpolish? We've come a long way since then. Bike rides, runs; part of every day! Fight for Ewoks, quite the Saturday morning battles. Stay sane Dude. Remember now Trish, "Don't Let The Turkeys Get You Down!!" One day you'll make it all the way to Ottawa!

Luv, Amanda & Julie!

JULIAN SILVA

We've been through a lot together this year. Through sadness and happiness. Both showed how much we really cared. Soon the year will end; friendship split but not forgotten. I'll miss laughing during English class, because of "the contest." I'll even miss your little laugh. Even though I'll have friends in later years, I'll never forget our close friendship. Always remember I'll be there for you. Good-bye, but not forever, my dear friend.

Sherif

MARGARET SIMS

Bok bok. More minutes. The window shoppers. Prove it. Feeble. Solid tunes. Mono - don't worry you won't get it! Talking to Mickey before breakfast - how tacky! Weredale 9. Thanks to: C.L., N.J., A.B., A.C., N.S.J.M. Thanks for smoked meat with mayo and mustard, for lending me money, most of all for listening. Thank you easter bunny.

Love T.S., K.V., A.W., G.P., J.B-L.

NATASHA STAIRS

Valkyrja: Odin's twelve hand-maidens selecting those destined to be slain in battle. Tell me once more to smile. Why so serious? You're young still. Keep the child inside alive and when you reach the next difficult chapter, look back for a moment. Listen to the Valkyries, see their road, but don't join their ride for glory. Remain a mortal; find your clouds with silver linings and be happy.

Tash.

CLAUDIA STEELE

It's your turn to be free, to go where the wind blows you. "Walking . . . Walking on a tight rope of insanity." (Box) To sum up the years in one favorite expression - WOOOH!! - Party! Let's begin! Remember: Summer '85, your endless search for a euphoric world = Solid Gold dancing! Sunbathing on the luxurious banks of Lennoxville. How alternative! NOW REALLY CLAUDY! G&T please. I know you'll always love Le Gang; Yaelipoo, BaBa, ect . . .

Love Rose.

JULIE STEINMAN

Julie, 10 years - a long time to have known someone. And to have had the kind of friendship that we've had for five out of those ten years is remarkable. In these past five years we've had some great times together. Ever since that first day in second form, you've been my best friend, and I wouldn't have had it any other way. I hope that our friendship will continue to last.

Love, Audrey

TRACEY STEVENS

Sun Wanderer, and weekend nights developing ... those G.H.O.C. We will miss you next year! To those super Celtics and our friendship.

SHERIF TADROS

Two whole years. Our only words were hi and goodbye. Never said much to each other. Though, those few words have become something worth while to listen to. Our friendship has become so strong and sometimes we regret not being aware of what a friend we missed out on. Your friendship has become something which won't leave our hearts. We will never forget you.

Love Always, Maria Luisa & Julian

MARC TELIO

Curry Powder! Rasmus: Camping at B.U. 000H! Taxis to Lennoxville. Manya Manya!! Roomie, "Don't Let Him Steal Your Heart Away" 17x. "Here Comes The Mirror Man.", "Do You Love Me?" Major Beverage! I'm gonna miss the booming metropolis of Lennoxville. Thanks Mom, Dad, and Peejstickles!!

PHILIPPE TELIO

Phil, What can I say but "Matawain"? You're not the best banboom I am! We've been through alot: from Interlocken, to 'Pulcos, (the ca-ca stream), to B.C.S., where in your first year, you found a girlfriend in a matter of hours. J.B.L. I'd say that you adjusted well! This year, you've made new friends, like D.B. Your friendship with your roomie, C.B. is also unbreakable; the same for us! Many thanks to your parents also. Love, Marc (cous)

STEPHAN THORPE

Stephipoo, "Common people" put you on the right "tracks". 50's Club. Athletic? Soccer M.V.P, SR Soccer and JR Hockey captain. Smart? Another story. Typical spick. Chewable lips, my closet, mom, and MARLBORO'S. Fantastic Four-meeting tonight? Same place, same time. I DON'T TALK IN MY SLEEP. Remember; D.J's, Burger King 4 a.m. J.D's place, and me. I'll always remember you, thanks for being there.

LOVE ALWAYS, YAEL. P.S. Bagels and Cream Cheese go great together!

SCOTT TINKER

Scotty, my middle big Tink, you are totally awesome. Life just wouldn't be the same without your smile and teddy-bear hugs. Remember: golfing (even if you weren't allowed), the great Neil Young, your only touchdown, cadet freak (I'm not taking anything from you!), "mellow out", tips under the big tree . . . hopefully the memories will continue. I'll miss you so much when we leave here.

Love Tracey
P.S. I'll meet you in the park!

LAURENT TSAI

Things here at BCS have changed since I left here after second form. Getting used to the new rules was like being a new student only I didn't have to go to new student line or drill. Being a resident makes it easier to make friends than being a day student. Old friends may be gone but new friends are just around the corner. I hope that they will return with me next year.

LOURDES VALDES

A few months have gone by and it seems that I've known you for years. While reflecting on the first day, I didn't quite know what would be expected of you. Having that fear of what kind of roommate you'd turn out to be. My fears are gone knowing that you're the best, though wishing we could spend more time together but you'll always be in my heart.

love always, Maria Luisa.

ANUSHREE VARMA

Dear Anushree, my dancing partner, fellow incense-burner, world critic and jeerer of those pseudo-radicals, evil-eye-charm wearer, and above all prominent anti-athletic club member. Oh harken ye black cloaked woman, ye school journalist and ye Inscape editor, ye foreign film and ice-cream lover. May we always (even when we're rich) make frivolous plans together. Love, your fine-feathered-friend, Alex

CATHERINE VENNAT

The witch woman
Sees fortunes bold
Hidden thoughts
Visions old.
Shame and truth
Before devil's eyes
Every woman is a witch
Every witch is wise.
Ancient verse from the Tarot of the Witches

VINCENTE VESCE

Vince came here in second form from Venezuela. A football and rugby star from the beginning, his hockey improved incredibly over the years. He used to be ugly now he's beautiful, but has too many girlfriends. Always smiling and laughing Vince turns bad situations good, and there were a few bad times. A North house captain who represents all the standards of a true North houser. We've had a lot of good times together Vince.

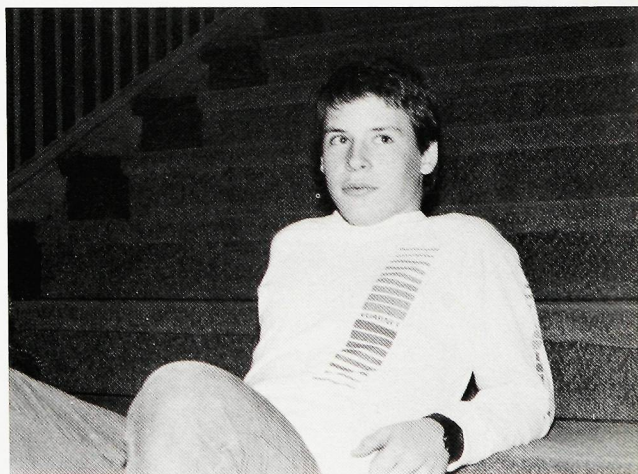

Take care, Scott

AMANDA VICKERS

"Don't you make fun of my accent! Besides, I'm not from England . . . I'm from Paris, stupid". "Do you have a rubber I could borrow! I mean an ERASER! How am I supposed to know Canadian slang!" "Guess what - I'm off new student line - FINALLY!" This has been Amanda's first year here at B.C.S. and one of her most enjoyable. Good luck!

Love you Your friend, Louise

SAMUEL WEBSTER

Steak tonight Sammy? How about Thursday prep at Father Malc's? We make money the old fashioned way, we EARN it! A&W sometime Sam? Ever since I met Sam, we've been rivals on the squash court. What was the reason you gave last week for losing? Your foot hurt? Oh, Okay.

- Ken

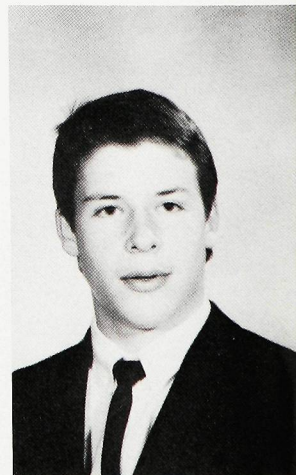

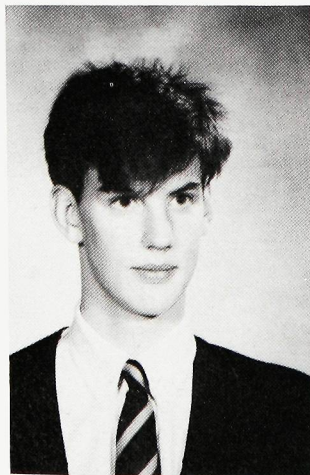

"But, just remember Sam, that no matter where you go, there you are."

- Buckaroo Bonzai

LARRY WELCH

Five years ago, directly from Quebec City, came a little guy named Larry Welch. When we first saw him he got a new nickname, "Mini Pot!" About 5 feet tall, he was Pretty tough for his size. He was also one of the rare Nordique fans at the school. Before we go, a couple of things we have to mention, at least you grew a few inches and you graduated. And another is: "Mini Pot, we wish you good luck!"

Pete

DOUGLAS WRIGHT

Doug De Doug Doug Doug, What are you a geek? You smooth operator. Going to go cruise some chicks. ROARING RED ROCKET. Beef it up. Can you remember that night in Montreal at DJ's? I bet you can't!. "Save me". Doug you're just a mighty fine dude. When your legs are shaved they look nicer than ours. Can you breath in those overused grey pants?. Did those trips to B.U. improve your golf or deteriorate your brain? Lots of luck,

Love; Gillian, Hardon, Tara, Tracey.

SUE WU

Su-Chi Wu, known as Sue Wu, had flown from far east, first arrived in Alberta then B.C., and now is in Quebec. Her favor subject is physical science, hoping to become a scientist. Sue is having a great time at BCS, and she is looking forward to next school year.

SARAH YARNOLD

12:00 p.m. - good time for an intellectual conversation. The hair and boots are indispensible and always you! Bogus music but definately heavy. Our fave's - Violent Fems, Replacements, and of course Electric Lunch Hours! Always a laugh on the bus, a laugh at a blown fuse, and a laugh to laugh. I know what you're up to! Where did you stick your gum? Sar-ah! My greatest sympathy for Marc, Live is Life. Drop a line babe, you know? S.B.

ANDREW YATES

I would like to dedicate this to my good friend, and buddy pal Andrew Yates. We all know Andrew by his californian laugh and nic-name "ACE". For the past two years Andrew has had an addiction to smoked oysters. Andrew has always seemed to squeek by without a room mate, they come and then they go, but not this year his room mate is here to stay! His injuries early in the year got him off to a bad start, but he soon recovered and resumed his place as line-backer . . . we hope to see him back next year!

52 GIRLS

Twas the night before Christmas
 And all through the house
 Not a creature was stirring
 Not even a mouse
 Lets begin with Caroline and Kim
 One's got an attitude and the others never rude
 Leanne going thru phase;
 We know its boys she craves.
 From Kenya comes Yvonne Pong.
 Silole comes from Hong Kong.
 Woops we got that really wrong.
 The Raymond girls came belated.
 First they're together, now they're separated.
 Bert, the Torontonion, Tannis our Oiler fan.
 Caroline's playing that piano whenever she can.
 Barb, shuffling her many men,
 Ask Kim to open tuck and she cries "No, no not again".
 Pour Ariana's Feeling randy,
 Buy Raggedy Ann has got her Andy.
 As Rosie's off on another thought
 Claudia's Mom sure found out a lot!
 Sue Wu where are you? Julie
 We know is foolin' around with her stollie.
 The scent of Maria blows us away like a truck,
 Entering Margarets' room is like wading thru muck.
 Frauelin Wolf has been extremely good,
 Unlike Kayla, whose always in a mood.
 Rochelle the Jap, always in a flap,
 Jasmine her roomie needs a map
 To get to the bathroom of course!
 Yael and Steph in another embrace,
 Tash cries hold that pose*
 Keep that smile on your face.
 Carol and Sarah are somewhat detached,
 While Sonia thinks her roomie Lyne just hatched.
 While mysterious people phone Jen,
 Shenaz deals with that bloody Brit - not Ken!
 David's stuck on Heather - she doesn't know what to do.
 Nancy, how we'll keep you with us,
 But please eat meat to encourage your lust.

XOXOXO

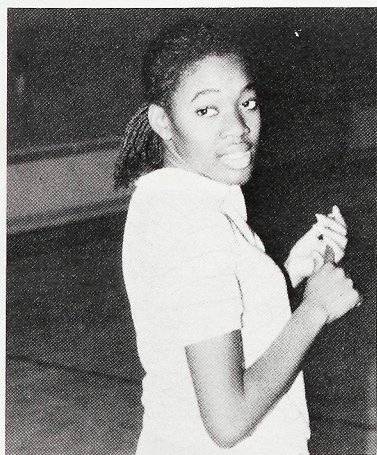

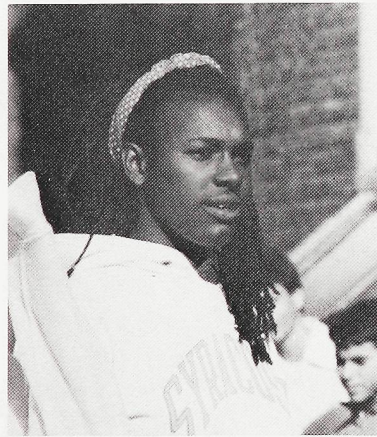

Santa

ROSS II

Have you ever been to an amusement park? Or should I say, have you ever been to the Ross II common room? No, you say. Well, what you have missed cannot be expressed in words. We're not the type of guys who would never dream of throwing a cushion. Then again, we're not the types who break every rule in the book. (Well almost). In my opinion we're a bunch of fun-loving people with a lot of spirit, knowledge, and some exceptional and unknown skills all our own. Just remember, the next time you're walking through a crowd, that one exceptional guy who compares to noone, is from Ross II. Greg Bertram

In 1942, due to a full enrolment in the Prep. School, and his father was the school Doctor, Jamie Winder, age 8, was permitted to attend as a dayboy, not a general policy at that time. Getting to school on time was often difficult from Lennoxville, because unscheduled freight trains carrying military equipment would often halt traffic on College Street. Then, arriving at the Prep. (Glass House) to find all the doors locked. Inside, the strains of the morning hymn being sung in Assembly might be heard, meaning a late entry with whispered excuses to the Master-in-charge in front of the whole school. James Winder has returned to the school this year to organize the archives in the Development Office, and it seems appropriate that this "oldest dayboy" on campus should wear a Ross House tie.

FOREVER YOUNG

Grier South

Let's hear it for South! - Purr-fect! It's hard to believe that the year is already drawing to a close. Hardly enough time to notice the passing of the months between visits after "lights out" and inspections. Ah, those laps! Backwards, forwards, fast, slow, early in the morning or all afternoon . . . House captains versus House, pillow fights, water fights, snow jobs, wrestling . . . How can we forget the SASS? "Is that a sass? Make my day, say YES!" "Oh my . . ."

The cry "You guys never listen to me!" could be heard throughout the writing of follow-ups. Beats ran rampid up top and especially down below -- training for real men! "Oh, maggots! How many laps do you want?" Fluffles, you're too tough for Kevie, so cool it. Maybe the power failure brings back memories . . . Too much has happened to relate here so I'll end with one quick note!

Life's a party . . . live it!

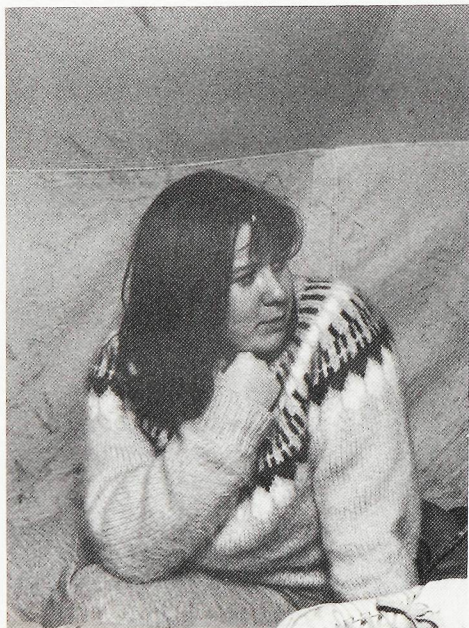

Affectionately, Sean and Kevin

TAKE OFF TO THE GREAT WHITE NORTH

This year has been extremely fulfilling. The involvement of our house in school activities has been truly exceptional. Our house has been a leader in many aspects of school life; first, through abolishment of laps; then, proving our true superiority by winning the tug-of-war. We are a humble bunch, and our house is notorious for our sportsmanship and good will in all competition. We would like to thank T.B.G. for his enthusiasm and optimism in our daily routine, especially his commitment to maintaining the most exciting house on campus. He has been a true example to us all.

When we started there was a house captain and prefect, dreams, hope, promise, and a decent commonroom carpet. By the time we had finished we had: A sudden realization that these were unrealistic except for the carpet which, by the way, we are happy to report, is now learning shorthand on a fullbright scholarship at Queen's!

They started as a fated group of thirteen. It could only go one direction from there. But, under the dynamic, subhuman devotion of Mr. Bedard (lovingly known as G. Denis), this throng of raw talent and great legs developed a certain savoir faire. Smiling at their "perky" opponents, they advanced to second place in their league, a very awesome accomplishment.

Demonstrating leadership both on and off the court, Josée and Silole were model captains.

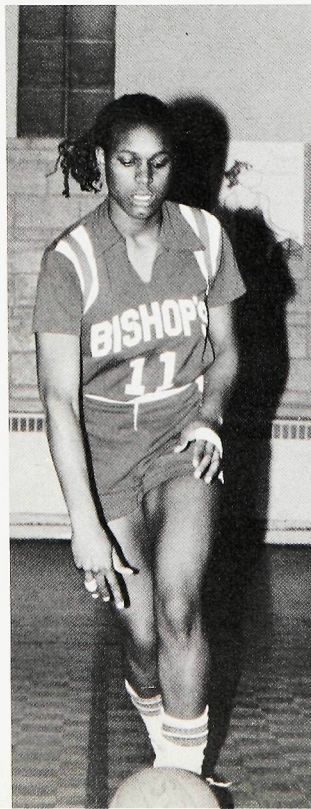

Champagne in hand, I raise a toast to a group of 13 classy, crude and courageous young women who taught all who watched them what having fun is all about.

Senior Hockey

As our team captain mentioned, Mr. Sherriffs is to be commended not only for his inspirational manner but as well for the immense amount of time devoted to our team. We had a fantastically successful season, more in the sense of developing friendships and a sense of commitment, than in actual games won and lost. Certain teammates stand out above others in their dedication to the team. Those who sacrificed their own abilities as hockey players for the greater good of the team deserve special thanks. Although we lost in a valiant attempt to qualify for the Provincials to a deserving Stanstead team, we can none-the-less say that in that last game we showed a maturity of team spirit that may have been lacking earlier in the season. A special thanks to Cpt. Tinker, assistant Cpt. Roberge and the team spouse.

This year's team was blessed with many different talents, including our "perfect" bantam; Gregor. We were having a great season until we lost our trails to the river and a few skis to the trees. But not to worry because Mr. D's ski shop fixed everything.

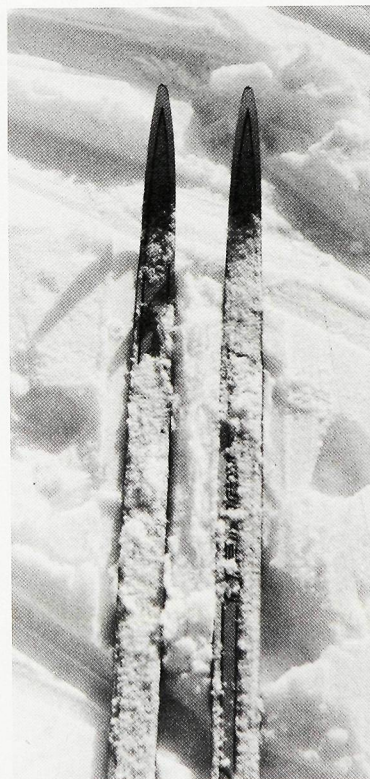

The season topped off with the Independent Meet in Ottawa, where among others, Steven Stearns and the ever optimistic Pessti produced some awesome results. Sorry You didn't make it girls maybe next year.

Curling: the art of getting stoned. Hey! What can I say? We started out with an odd mix of people, but Miss Harding did the best she could with us. # STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

Yesterday my brother, David Shannon, an old Smith House boy, was at the School. He sat in Chapel next to Mrs. Cruickshank and at one point whispered to her, "Little did I think, when I had to come to Chapel here day after day, that I would come back and see my sister as Chaplain." And Mrs. Cruickshank replied "Little did I think when I came with King's Hall to the BCS dances, which I hated, that I would be sitting here as the Headmaster's wife."

Life is full of rich surprises - and you can never know what surprises lie ahead. If anyone had told me, when I used to come to BCS and run in the sisters' race, that one day I would be Chaplain, I would have said that he or she was much, much more than mad. In the first place it was a Boys' School, in the second, there was no such thing as women priests and thirdly, being a priest was literally the last thing on my mind. Yet here I sit wondering how to sum up a year in The Life of BCS Chapel in two hundred words.

The aim of the Chapel this year has been to speak to everyone - as our mixture of languages, cultures and beliefs becomes more and more varied; and to reach beyond ourselves. The collections have been good, the students have given generously. It's almost a BCS tradition that the plate get back to the 10th row with only a penny in it - but maybe that's one tradition that is changing. We have used silence effectively, the sound of our silence is one that seems to touch everyone. There is something sacred about it, and it is common to all.

And "all" is what The Chapel is about, it is a community in the true sense. At various times in the year we have tried to thank various members of the community who do so much for Chapel - either in an up front way or in a backstage way. But in fact thanks are due to everyone, for everyone participates in his or her own way, even just by being there, so thanks are due to all.

And if a special thanks is needed it must go to our own beloved Good Shepherd - Bishop Tim. By his wisdom, his experience, his love, by all that he is, he leads and cherishes us all. In his blessing to us he says - "May you see the face of the Lord Jesus in everyone you meet." We can certainly see the face of the Lord Jesus in Bishop Timothy Matthews.

THE PROPHET'S SONG

Son of Man by Dennis Potter

Son of Man started as a television play in England in the sixties, and I doubt if any production has suited more the intimacy, pace, and rough honesty this play demands. From the moment the lights dim, there is a rapid flow of scenes, moving with precision and astounding pace - even on the first night, which rarely produces such well-drilled production values.

And what a totally astonishing moment when the very stage itself seemed to break apart, turn into a hilltop, and the central cross reared up out of the very wood of the platform, with the Christ upon it, sudden, shocking, harrowing. The intimacy of the tiny theatre (like that of television) took us right to the foot of the cross, with all the strong emotions that implies.

There is always a temptation with religious material to "milk it", but this the young cast avoided, choosing to drive the story ahead relentlessly. The leads: Keith Lascelles as Jesus, Fern Grenier as Caiaphas, Tony Torriani as Pilate, were all excellent, but special mention must be made of the small parts. In a theatre so small, every gesture tells - and each actor without exception was completely in character, at all times. This I find not only a remarkable tribute to the Director, but also to the B.C.S. training in concentration and imagination - the two fundamental tools of the actor.

This was a very special production of a very moving play, and served to remind us all again how valuable Theatre is, enriching our lives in so many ways in this desolate epoque of Television. And thus how important it is for we alumni to support plans for an expanded theatre department and plant at the School.

LIMELIGHT

Hotel Paradiso

The production, Hotel Paradiso, directed by Charles Peacock, was a frenetic farce with couples up to no good rushing round the rooms and corridors of the somewhat dubious Hotel Paradiso.

Comedy demands a sense of humour combined with a sense of timing and endless energy. Ken Evans, playing the lead rôle of Mr. Boniface, showed all these qualities and more, and he and Lisa Hurrell, playing Mme. Cot, delighted the audience with their antics, as Mr. Boniface pursued Mme. Cot, all to no avail. The revolving stage, designed and built by Lewis Evans, was an ingenious and fascinating feature which enabled us to fit three bedrooms, a staircase and the reception area of the Hotel into the tiny studio theatre. Angela Bunge, Roy Brooke, Kate Huband, Jon Keyte and Pat LeBlond played the other characters who all ended up in the same hotel and Margaret McGregor once again did a fine job with the costumes.

Cadets

A successful new student camp and the introduction of a cadet afternoon activity schedule started the year on its course. We participated in Lennoxville's wet and snowy November 11th Remembrance Day Parade. In no time we were starting to practice for the inspection. It was an awesome spectacle to witness the corps march out from behind the school. Despite elemental onslaught, we thrilled our guests with uniforms, drill, and demonstrations. Our inspecting officer Maj. General Norman was very impressed. To finish the year on a strong note, our precision team and colour party took part in the Black Watch Annual Church Parade in Montreal. The year has been a success in many ways. You all have something to be proud of.

P.S. SEE YOU NEXT YEAR!

THE GAMES PEOPLE PLAY

Senior Rugby

Everyone has to admit that our chances of winning the league looked pretty slim at the beginning of the year. Our forward combined weight was about half that of last year's and the general skill level of the team seemed to be lower. With the combination of a successful Ontario tour and a lot of heart, our team has come out victorious in seven of eight matches, as well as being undefeated in league play and winning the G.M.A.A. championships. As well the team placed a strong second in the Lachine sevens.

Many thanks have to go to Mr. Common and Mr. Macknish for leading us as far as they have. Finally a special thanks to the whole team for being exactly that.

THE QUITTER

When you're lost in the Wild, and you're scared as a child,
And Death looks you bang in the eye,
And you're sore as a boil, it's according to Hoyle
To cock your revolver and . . . die.
But the Code of a Man says: "Fight all you can,"
And self-dissolution is barred.
In hunger and woe, oh, it's easy to blow . . .
It's the hell-served-for-breakfast that's hard.

It's easy to cry that you're beaten - and die;
It's easy to crawfish and crawl;
But to fight and to fight when hope's out of sight -
Why that's the best game of them all!
And though you come out of each gruelling bout,
All broken and beaten and scarred,
Just to have one more try - it's dead easy to die,
It's the keeping-on-living that's hard.

- bad news bears strike out again.
- Lea anymore home runs?
- the team with the least ability to win.
- catcher and umpire seem close, very close.
- that's it Helga, explain the rules to the umpire.
- Rochelle don't throw it so hard! Please!
- I got it . . . oh maybe I don't.
- . . . well we're better looking.

Thanks Mr. D. for your support and Mr. Sherriffs for showing up.

Well boys and girls, this brings us to the conclusion of the happy story of the speedies, tossers, semi-speedies, the bouncies, the Lone Walker (and his shorts) and the roller (Pete). Thanks to the Miss Air Lane Flying Agency, Perrierjautical Workout Institute and the Big Geeks workouts "SUN-TANNING" (Marlin style) we were able to transform a bunch of misfits into well oiled suntan machine.

Thanks to Dr. Bob, the Fish, Jules, and Mrs. P for a great year at the country club.

Tennis

Nin-Nin-Nineteen tennis players, that's all we needed to make the Bishop's first nineteen.

We had quite a cast of tennis players this season including the Twin Towers, Sam and Ian and late comers like the "spectacular" Maria and B.B. McGrath. Nun's Island was quite a success seeing as we came in fourth . . . out of four teams that is.

Timon, being allergic to food, had to stop at McDonald's while Adam losing only to the fifth seed in Canada wept for an hour in the bus. I guess Julian's "passing shot" didn't work and Sam, well, no comment. All in all it's just another dead tennis ball.

"Mrs. Detchon, you've got to help us!" we (ie. sunbathers, ex-track stars, intellectuals . . .) cried in unison. Rescue us she did, forming the Games Crease, with good humour being the only prerequisite. From soccer to basketball to badminton to volleyball to tennis; you could say we've given everything a try! It was fun and at times very exerting too - Thanks and Congradulations to Mrs. Detchon and everyone for maintaining that practically unheard of combination!

Cycling Touring

Colonel Strickland - leading the pack with his florescent safety vest. 2nd in command is Mike and the 20 speed mountain bike.

Then comes Mark, who conquers Compton Hill with incredulous ease. Chris follows along, enthusiastically able to chat and cycle at the same time. Matthew, who can barely touch the pedals, eagerly rides his bike consisting of everything except the kitchen sink.

Then comes Colette and Sloane. Sloane modeling the latest Univ. of California apparell, and Colette who fashionably presents an array of New England Prep Wear.

Thanks for the joy ride "keen".

First Row - M. Nawar, S. Berthaulimew, C. Lenfest, C. Nakash, M. LaRochelle, M. Charlton, Mr. Strickland (coach).

Competitive Cycling

"Everybody wave!" said Mark as we rode past the nudist colony. Thus closed the 1986 competitive cycling season at B.C.S.

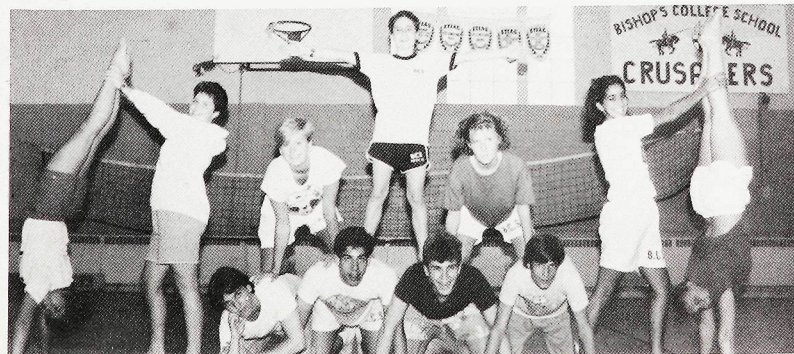

The team consisted of five members: Fritz McKellar (King of the mountains), Stephan Thorpe (occasionally), Rosemarie Heimbach (downhill specialist), Robin Roots (making sure no one falls and gets left behind), and Lindsay Hausner (cartoonist/crease notice maker), and our coaches Mark Batten (who couldn't shake Fritz) and Nancy Gillies (with her yellow Mauroni).

Many thanks to Nancy and Mark for a great season of hard training. Hope to see you all next year.

Lindsay Hausner

First Row - F. McKellar, Second Row - R. Heimbach, N. Gilles (coach), M. Batten (coach), S. Thorpe, R. Roots, L. Hausner.

EVERYDAY I WRITE THE BOOK . . .

The Yearbook

... is no joke. And its aptness in describing the hectic pace we kept up to put together the Yearbook helps in explaining how we came to choose music as our theme. Music can bring back a memory faster and stronger than almost anything else, and it often says things better than we can. (right Beth? It's so true!) We actually started working on the Yearbook during the summer when nine of us went to camp and learned how to put the book together. Then we came back to school and learned how to break into locked rooms (Hawk!) and pick open doors so we could use our new found expertise. The nine who went to camp formed the core of the Yearbook staff and they each rapidly took control of their respective branches. (hyuk hyuk!!) I know it is cliqued, but I would be lying if I didn't say that they made it possible for the Yearbook to be as good as it is, along with the aid of the Thursday helpers. Finally, even though Steve (sir) insists that we took the yearbook into our own paws (private joke) we all know that without this support and guidance it wouldn't have been the same! Squeak!
